

Toads

Kaitlyn Bier

▶ Phylum:_____

▶ Subphylum:_____

▶ Class: _____

What's the difference?

- ▶ People commonly think frogs and toads are the same thing
- ▶ Toads are characterized by their stubby bodies and short legs
- ▶ They have _____ and dry skin
- ▶ They have _____ glands just behind the eyes, which serve as a defense mechanism.
- ▶ They are often brownish or grayish in color.

- ▶ Toads are _____, and rest during the day in burrows
- ▶ Toads will also hibernate in burrows, and come out in _____ to mate.

Wha do they eat?

- ▶ Toads are _____, meaning they eat both plants and animals.
- ▶ As tadpoles, toads eat various _____
- ▶ as adults, they eat bugs such as grubs, slugs, worms, or even smaller toads.

- ▶ There are over _____ species of toads known that are found all over the world except cold climates
- ▶ However, they are most abundant in the _____ regions.

Reproduction

- ▶ Some toads are known to bear live young
- ▶ Females lay their eggs in _____ strings in the water that can reach up to _____ in length.
- ▶ They lay many clumps of eggs within these strings because of all of the hazards between their hatching.

Fun fact!

- ▶ Toads actually do not cause warts. It is a human virus.
- ▶ This myth was probably started due to the toad's _____ skin.

Work cited

Toads, N.A, www.naturehaven.com/frog/toad.html,
Friday November 13th

▶ Kahoot:

▶ [https://create.kahoot.it/?
_ga=1.15589234.591293318.1447637808&device
Id=5ea9f89a-
a2ba-4f9d-9cdo-6edff0416a73#quiz/655f62c7-be6a-47e3-be2a-088ee8d2a88b](https://create.kahoot.it/?_ga=1.15589234.591293318.1447637808&deviceId=5ea9f89a-a2ba-4f9d-9cdo-6edff0416a73#quiz/655f62c7-be6a-47e3-be2a-088ee8d2a88b)